Message from the President of The Australian Soccer Federation

The commencement of the fourth season of the Philips Soccer League could well prove to be a milestone.

In its short history the Philips Soccer League Premiership together with the Top Four Championship and the Philips Cup, has survived three turbulent years and has emerged with greater strength.

The fourth year of the League should see in Australian Soccer generally a strengthening of administration, more effective marketing strategies, a broader awareness of Soccer in the commercial world and a greater recognition of the game by the media.

From the Philips Soccer League, I expect improved playing standards, a greater emphasis on Australian youth and constant attempts to improve and professionalize club administration.

Of paramount importance is the necessity for some clubs to become more media oriented and to broaden the extent of the participation of the community both in their membership structure and their administrative committees.

The Philips League is the only winter sporting event which has managed to commence and sustain a truly inter-State competition and whilst it has a long way still to travel, I have little doubt that it will achieve its goals.

I wish all the member clubs of the League a successful and exciting 1980 season.

PHILIPS SOCCER LEAGUE IN THE 1980s

“New Look” Decade in Soccer

I wish to thank member clubs of the Philips Soccer League for the confidence they showed by appointing me Chairman of the League for the coming season, and give my assurance to honour and fulfil my obligations to the best of my abilities and, I hope, to the satisfaction of the League clubs.

We must, as member clubs, be prepared for an increased effort and contribution to the success of our national teams in 1980-1982, as success in these areas of competition means so much to our League's continued growth and prosperity in the future.

Winners are heroes, and heroes in Soccer, nationally and at club level, are the ingredients necessary to satisfactorily market, promote and advertise Soccer in Australia.

To further strengthen our administration, a League Secretary is to be appointed to deal with and up-date all day-to-day administration matters of the League.

Competent administration will be necessary to implement our clubs' part in the marketing of our game in the 1980s, and the need for clubs to strengthen their own administration structure is emphasised by the Management Committee to all member clubs.

One of the disappointments of 1979 was the deferment by the Australian Soccer Federation of the Philips League recommendation for the formation of a Youth competition to play as curtain raiser fixture to all Philips League matches.

In 1980 we must liaise closely with the Australian Soccer Federation and State federations to persuade them to re-consider their decision, and to hasten the formation of this youth-orientated competition.

Now that the Immigration Department's limitation on overseas temporary visa players is in force, the emphasis on youth development is essential to prevent the game, at national competition level, being exploited by players to a stage of club insolvency.

Players of the calibre of Mark Jankovics, Greg Woodhouse, Peter Sharne, Joe Senkalski, Eddie Krncevic, Peter Raskopoulos

and Arno Bertogna are there to be found and develop through the avenue of a Philips League youth competition, where young players with potential can have an opportunity to develop a professional outlook by training, coaching, travelling with and playing for their clubs, and by being exposed weekly to the conditions and demands of a national competition.

I also propose to recommend the formation of a special committee, made up of Australian Soccer Federation and Philips Leagues representatives, to investigate, report and recommend on all aspects of our transfer and player payment systems. I know from current experiences of our League, and the problems that exist in the Victorian Football League and in Rugby League that if we are to continue to exist as a league, then a practical legal method of control of transfer, signing-on and match payment fees is imperative.

I appeal to all clubs to sit in unity in Council in the 1980s as much needs to be accomplished to assist our “sleeping giant” of the 1970s — Soccer — to take its rightful place as the premier winter sport in Australia.

On behalf of the Management Committee, I wish all clubs a prosperous and progressive 1980.

THE PHILIPS LEAGUE CAN BE PROUD OF ITS RECORD ing just completed the third year of our ence we can look back with a degree of atisfaction in that we managed to ince and consolidate a national competition is now looked upon with envy by other s.

s a credit to all of us that in spite of ime difficulties facing us, we have come ar.

I have, I believe, in this period achieved
of our original aims:

ie overall standard of the game has amatically improved as reflected in our sults against visiting teams.

iere has been what I would describe as a ialified acceptance of the game by ustry and 'establishment' media.

ubs both old and new, have shown a gher standard of professionalism in their ministration.

ie initial antagonism to the league from thin the code has almost disappeared
th the notable exception of New South ales.

we now turn to the other side of the re, our greatest disappointment was our e to attract large crowds, particularly in wo major cities.

The majority of our clubs still have the game
approach to spectators as they did in State League days.

I have said many times in the past — that our success or failure is measured by the number of spectators.

Only when we consistently attract over 10,000 spectators to our games can we claim to be a major sport.

I believe many of us at the top echelons of soccer administration, both at club and Federation level, have become stale, with very few innovative and progressive ideas.

It is time for some of us to look at ourselves objectively and ask whether our continuance is benefitting our clubs or the code in general.

I have now spent three and half years as Deputy Chairman and Chairman of the League and as I do not intend to seek re-election I would like to record my thanks to all clubs for their past assistance and co-operation.

I would particularly like to thank my colleagues on the management committee; John Frank, Denise Whip, Brian Le Fevre and
of course, Sir Arthur George for his continued support and confidence in the League.

SAM PAPASAVAS

THE RISES AND FALLS OF THE 1979 PREMIERSHIP

Although 1978 was regarded as the year of consolidation for the Philips League, several changes took place in 1979, and most clubs were much too aware of the threat of relega-tion to think primarily of consolidating.

At the finish, one of the oldest clubs in Australia — one with a proud record, South Melbourne — and a club formed for the start of the Philips League, Sydney Olympic, came up for re-election.

South Melbourne, with a fine ground, solid support, and sound financial footing, were successful. Olympic, with less solid foundations, less well-supported, and without a home of their own, were rejected in favour of new applicants, Blacktown City.

A strong appeal by Olympic was also rejected, and now the club must re-establish its credibility in the NSW State League before it can apply for re-admission.

One of the benefits of the Philips League has been the creation of clubs where none existed before.

Olympic, Canberra City and Newcastle KB United were all formed specifically to bring the national competition to their areas.

Blacktown City hardly falls into that category, but it is a young club, operating in Sydney's unfashionable Far Western suburbs.

For the second year in succession, the Premiership started off as a one-horse race, with Marconi establishing an early lead at the top of the table.

This time, however, freed from the internal dissension which all but wrecked the club in 1978, Marconi did not falter.

They maintained their composure and their form, and strode away to a comfortable premiership win by four points from Heidelberg United, who made their familiar late-season run, but found the Marconi lead too big to overhaul.

Injuries to key players and some nervousness midway through the second half of the season enabled their pursuers to get closer than they would otherwise have done.

But Marconi's superiority was underlined
when national coach Rudi Gutendorf selected six of their players for his national squad.

The other impressive performance came from Brisbane City, who had finished last in 1978. With little change to his playing staff, coach Nereo Saftich achieved a remarkable improvement in performance.

Brisbane City finished fourth in the Premiership, and at one stage looked as if they might finish even higher.

Adelaide City and Newcastle KB United also improved substantially on 1978, although not quite as spectacularly as Brisbane City.

Newcastle also improved satisfactorily on their crowds, exceeding 1978's record figures by a comfortable margin.

The enthusiasm of club officials and players was sustained at a time when many expected it to diminish, and Newcastle continues to be one of the success stories of the Philips League.

Canberra City improved marginally on their 1978 position, after looking at one stage as if they might finish comfortably in the top half of the table.

The decline undoubtedly followed the departure of Ian Callaghan, the former England and Liverpool star, who went home for the start of the English League season with Swansea.

Unfortunately, many of Canberra's talented young players appeared not to have the capacity to learn from Callaghan's Soccer sagacity, and finished more confused by his stay than improved.

Western Suburbs went out of existence as a senior Soccer club, first merging with Apia, then being taken over by them, giving one of Sydney's most honoured clubs a place at last in the Philips League — a place most Soccer lovers felt strongly Apia should have had from the beginning of the League.

Playing as Apia-Leichhardt, the newcomers played the first half of the season like potential champions, but lost their grip and rhythm in the second half of the season.

One of Australia's great clubs of the past, St
George, sadly failed to improve on mediocre performances in the first two years of the league.

Indeed, right until the last match of the season, St George was anchored in the bottom two places.

Only a magnificent goal against Sydney Olympic by Peter Katholos, one of several highly talented younger players at the club,

ed St George to escape the indignity of ing for re-election.

› biggest plunge apart from South urname's was by the 1978 Premiers, West ide, who finished in seventh place in).

s resulted in part from a serious injury in the season which put the 1978 cap- and outstanding midfielder, Neil achey, out of the game for the rest of the competition.

Apart from his inspiration and example to his teammates, McGachey was missed for his high work rate, tigerish tackling and defence — splitting passes.

Brisbane Lions slipped marginally in 1978, but continued to play bright and aggressive Soccer. Lions have a solid base for success, but need a couple of outstanding players to lift the team into the top bracket.

NEW HOME FOR PHILIPS CUP — 1979

The Philips Cup has already fulfilled the aims of its founders — the Australian Soccer Federation and Philips Industries — in providing an Australian-wide knock-out competition.

In its first year, the Cup was contested only by the 14 Philips League clubs. In 1978 this was extended to take in 18 clubs nominated by the State ruling bodies from Western Australia and Tasmania in addition to the Australian Capital Territory and the five (Soccer) States in which the Philips League clubs are located.

Only two clubs have won the Philips Cup and only two others have appeared in the final.

Brisbane City won it in the inaugural year, 1977, beating Marconi in the final on penalties after the scores were level at the end of extra time.

Brisbane City won it again the following year, beating Adelaide City in another hard-fought final.

In 1979, Adelaide City won the Cup, beating St George 3-2 in the final after being 2-0 down in the first half.

TOP FOUR CHAMPIONSHIP — 1979

The Philips Top Four Championship was introduced in the second year of the Philips League, as it was felt such competitions are well-known to and accepted by the Australian sporting public.

In the first year the Top Four tournament was run on well-tried Australian lines, with the winner of the first semi-final, between the top two clubs in the Premiership, going straight into the grand final, and the loser of that match meeting the winner of the second semi-final, between the third and fourth place-getters in the Premiership, in the final to decide the second grand-finalist. The loser of the second semi-final was automatically eliminated from the series.

In 1979, the format was altered to a round-robin tournament, with the two leading clubs after three weeks playing each other in the two-leg grand final on a home-and-away basis.

This was felt to be not as successful or acceptable as the traditional format used in 1978, so this year, 1980, there will be a return to the 1978 method of deciding the Top Four Championship.

Eastern Suburbs-Hakoah won the Championship in 1978, and as Sydney City won it again in 1979.

'SOCCER IS THE WINNER' AT 1979 PHILIPS AWARDS

highpoint of a memorable evening at the Philips Soccer League Awards was a h by Merv Agars, Sporting Editor of the side Advertiser", while making the station of one of the South Australian trophies in a combined function.

Agars said: "God gave us two ends — o sit on, the other to think with. Our ss depends on which one we use most, nce life's a gamble, heads we win, tails ie.

d as Soccer players use their heads than any other sportsmen, Soccer must : winner."

ing from a self-confessed, life-long ilian Football fan, it was a generous , and it brought the house down.

ie again, the ASPA-Philips Player of the Award night was a resounding success.

story of the night, of course, lay in the ation of the awards by one club — ni — whose team and personnel carried ie Philips Shield as Premiers, the wood Bowl for Player of the Year (lvo o), "Soccer World" Trophy for the -21 Player of the Year (Eddie Krncevic), he "Adelaide News" Trophy for the i of the Year (Les Scheinflug).

wards which did not go to Marconi were p Four Trophy for the Champions, won ydney City, the Philips Cup, won by de City, whose cultured play was bound ng them honours eventually, and the p Trophy for Referee of the Year, which orisingly went to Tony Boskovic.

ew award which was most welcome in its nition of the part the media plays in the y coverage of Philips League Soccer ie Umbro Prize for the Photograph of the Fittingly, and totally deservedly, this went to Peter Wallis for his "capture" of Adelaide City goalkeeper Peter Marshall in mid-air during a match with West Adelaide.

One feature of the evening was the excellence of the speeches.

A large and highly critical audience was kept amused, informed and entertained most of the time.

Mr Ewoud Meijerink of Philips Industries, in presenting three major trophies repeated an undertaking already given some weeks earlier to a smaller audience by his chairman, Mr Herman Huyer, of continued support by Philips of the Australia-wide competitions.

That assurance, coming early in the piece, certainly gave the evening the sort of security and assurance it needed to relax and enjoy itself.

There was plenty to enjoy, with wit and humour in abundance, and good fellowship uniting all in a way which would be most welcome throughout the game throughout the year.

OPPOSITE Above: The three trophies presented by Philips Industries — the Top Four Championships, the Philips League Premiership Shield and the Philips Cup.

BELOW: A delighted Adelaide City president, Charlie Caruso, holds aloft the Philips Cup after the presentation by Mr E. Meijerink of Philips Industries.

HISTORY IN THE MAKING

Although this picture was taken in 1978, it was after the completion of the Philips competitions and it shows an historic occasion.

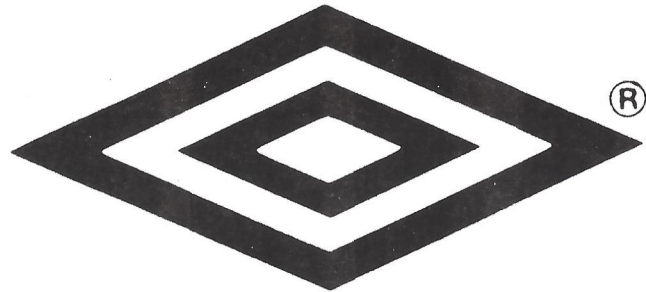

Peter Stone, the team captain, is seen introducing Philips Industries chairman Mr Herman Huyer the first Philips League Select Team to play in Sydney.

The match was against the Greek First Division club Olympiakos.

Goal scorers are worth their weight in gold

Goalscoring is the main purpose of soccer, the end product of all the training, the practice, the coaching, the work, the skill, the tactics and the tension.

That is why goalscorers are normally the glamour-boys of the game.

A good goalscorer is worth his weight in rare metal.

But good goalscorers are as rare as any metal you can name.

That is why Mark Jankovics was worth so much money to Marconi when they bought him from St. George two years ago.

And that is why Kenny Boden cost Sydney

City even more when they bought him from Newcastle KB United at the end of the 1979 season.

Boden topped the Philips League goalscorers in 1978.

Jankovics headed the list in 1979.

Jankovics also heads the list for three years the Philips League has been operating.

The full lists of goalscorers last season is shown below.

The figures in brackets show the total of goals scored by the player in the Philips League — not necessarily with the one club.

Don't abuse the ref.— learn the laws of the game

Almost every week at Philips League matches large sections of the crowd can be heard abusing the referee for some decision or other with which the spectators disagree.

Just to help spectators, whether they be coaches, administrators or just plain supporters, to know what they are talking about when they criticise a referee's decision, here are the Laws of the Game.

Law 1 — The Field of Play. (Diagram below).

Law 2 — The Ball, circumference 27"-28", weight 4 oz.-16 oz.

Law 3 — Number of Players. Each team consists of 11 players, one of whom must be the goalkeeper. A maximum of three substitutes may be used.

Law 4 — Player Equipment. Consists of a shirt, shorts, stockings and shoes. Goalkeeper must wear colours which distinguish him from the other players.

Law 5 — Referees. One referee is appointed for each match. He is responsible for control of the game and his decisions are final.

Law 6 — Linesmen. Two linesmen assist the referee by indicating offside, when the ball is out of play, and which team is entitled to the corner kick or throw in.

Law 7 — Duration of the Game. Shall be two equal periods of 45 minutes unless otherwise agreed upon.

Law 8 — The Start of Play. A flip of coin decides which team will kick off. Each team must stay on its own half of the field and the defending players must be at least 10 yards from the ball until it is kicked. After a goal the team scored upon will kick off. After halftime the teams change ends and the kickoff will be taken by the opposite team to that which started the game. A goal cannot be scored directly from a kickoff.

Law 9 — Ball In and Out of Play. The ball is out of play when (a) it has wholly crossed the goal line or touchline, whether on the ground or in the air, or (b) when the game has been stopped by the referee.

Law 10 — Method of Scoring. A goal is scored when the whole of the ball has passed over the goal line, between the goal posts and under the cross bar.

Law 11 — Offside. A player is offside if he is nearer his opponents' goal line than the ball at the moment the ball is played unless, (a) he is in his own half of the field of play, (b) there are two of his opponents nearer to their own goal line than he is, (c) he receives the ball direct from a goal kick, a corner kick, a throw in, or when it was dropped by the referee.

Law 12 — Fouls and Misconduct. A player who intentionally attempts to or actually: (1) kicks, (2) trips, (3) jumps at, (4) charges violently, (5) charges from behind, (6) strikes, (7) holds or (8) pushes an opponent, or (9) intentionally handles the ball shall be penalized by a direct free kick. Any one of these nine offences committed in the penalty area by a defender will result in a penalty kick to the offensive team. A player committing less flagrant violations such as offside, dangerous plays, obstruction or ungentlemanly conduct will be penalized by an indirect free kick.

Law 13 — Free kicks. Are classified into two categories: "Direct" (from which a goal can be scored directly against the offending side) and "Indirect" (from which a goal cannot be scored unless the ball has been touched by a player other than the kicker before entering the goal). For all free kicks the offending team must be at least 10 yards from the ball until it is kicked.

Law 14 — Penalty Kick. A direct free kick taken at the penalty mark. All players except the player taking the kick and the goalkeeper must stay outside the penalty area and at least ten yards from the ball (hence the arc at the edge of penalty area).

Law 15 — Throw in. When the ball has wholly crossed the touchline it is put back into play by a throw in from the spot where it went off and by a player from the opposite team that last touched it. A goal cannot be scored directly from a throw in.

Law 16 — Goal Kick. When the ball has wholly crossed the goal line after being last touched by a player from the attacking team, it is put back into play by a kick from the goal area by the defending team.

Law 17 — Corner Kick. When the ball has wholly crossed the goal line after being last touched by a player from the defending team, it is put back into play by a kick from the corner on the side the ball went out by the attacking team.

CONFRONTATION

Confrontation. . . . Brisbane City goalkeeper, Kim Wishart, (right) and Sydney Olympic's Dave McIntosh let each other know exactly where they stand during a clash in their Philips League game at Perry Park. The incident occurred after Wishart had taken a high ball and was fouled. Wishart immediately stood up and told McIntosh what he thought of the incident. The two players were then separated by teammates. City won the game 2-1 to go into second place on the premiership ladder.
